

Special Circumstances Appeal Process

Special Circumstances Appeals are done on a case by case basis and require sufficient documentation to explain the circumstance and identify the changes that need to be made to the Financial Aid application. The procedure outlined below is designed to help make this process as easy and streamlined as possible. Following the procedure will help insure that the process moves forward effectively and will help in getting the documentation we need to make an informed decision.

STEP ONE - MEET WITH A FINANCIAL AID ADVISOR

Meeting with a Financial Aid Advisor initially will accomplish the following three things.

1. Help determine if your circumstance is covered by the Special Circumstances Appeal Guidelines.
2. If the changes that would possibly be made will actually help the Financial Aid eligibility of the student.
3. Determine the documentation that is needed to get the Special Circumstances Appeal approved.

STEP TWO – COLLECT THE DOCUMENTATION REQUESTED

In order for the Special Circumstances Appeal to be approved we must have the needed documentation to show why and what we are approving. The requested documentation is the minimum amount needed to approve the Special Circumstances Appeal. All documentation must be signed by the individual supplying it. We will not accept any documentation for your Special Circumstances Appeal until you have all requested documentation ready to submit. If you have questions or are having difficulty getting specific pieces of documentation please let the Financial Aid Advisor know and they may be able to offer alternative options on how to get the needed information.

STEP THREE – MEET AGAIN WITH THE FINANCIAL AID ADVISOR

This meeting should be made with the same Financial Aid Advisor as you met with during the initial appointment. During this meeting a review of all the needed documentation will take place and another review of the data will be done which will update the possible results from the Special Circumstances Appeal. Depending on the documentation received the Financial Aid Advisor may need to request additional documents to complete the Special Circumstances Appeal. If this is needed another appointment will be made and you will need to return with all documentation. If the Financial Aid Advisor determines that all the documentation needed has been received they will submit the documentation for approval.

STEP FOUR – FINANCIAL AID DIRECTOR REVIEW

The completed documentation will be submitted to the Financial Aid Director for review and final approval. This process can take up to 7 days, and once complete can have one of the three listed results.

1. Approved, once the Special Circumstances Appeal is approved the Financial Aid Staff will make the needed changes to your Application and create an updated Award Letter, this process can take up to 2 weeks to accomplish.
2. Denied, the Financial Aid Director may deny the Special Circumstances Appeal, if he determines the Special Circumstances Appeal does not meet the guidelines set by the Federal Department of Education.
3. Additional information needed. If the Financial Aid Director feels more information is needed, the student will be asked to resubmit additional information. This process will be done by working with the Financial Aid Advisor.

The process can be long and involved but the Financial Aid staff will help you through it. The Financial Aid staff will do their best to advise whether or not your claim will be approved or if it will have any effect on your Financial Aid awards.
